

Addressing Bullying in the Workplace

Ms. Camay is a subject matter expert who will share invaluable information and national statistics in her webinar on the topic, sharing her personal testimony with the audience.

Ms. Camay is a business operations consultant and Chair of the Outreach and Education program with the National Workplace Bullying Coalition. She is a professional paralegal and has worked in law for 17 years, supporting lawyers in Fortune 500 insurance defense litigation corporations and international business law litigation in private sectors.

- The Workplace Bullying Epidemic
- Simple Concepts to Implement
- Setting Clear Boundaries
- How to Properly Address Being Bullied
- Building a Strong Civil Claim Against Repeated Harassment & Retaliation

REGISTER ONLINE TODAY AT
www.MsCamayInternational.com

Ms. Camay McClure, CEO

Ms. Camay holds a Bachelor's Degree in Paralegal Studies from Purdue University. She is a Humanitarian Award Recipient for her advocacy around bullying in the workplace and she received the Presidential Volunteer Service Award from President Barack Obama. Ms. Camay is an International Best-Selling Author and Co-Compiler in the Anthology "Stand Up, Speak Out Against Workplace Bullying".

Workplace Bullying
Ethics CLE

Contact Us for More Information!

 Las Vegas, NV

 206-250-5227

 mscamayinternational@gmail.com